a lively and uncompromising Union paper, started in the town of Homer, Louisiana, 图 It is understood that General Mansfield Lovell, late of the rebel army, has become the working editor of the New York Daily News.

Many of the farmers around Petersburg will not plough up their lands for fear of stri-king unexploded shells.

A large party of roughs from Springfield went to a camp meeting at Wilbraham on Sun-day, and domineered over the assembly in a lawless and riotous manner for several hours. The vicinity of Lewiston, Maine, is infested with gipsies. They bring with them children in almost countless numbers, and worry the people by begging and stealing. Bangkok papers by the latest mails contain full accounts of the assassination of President Lincoln, and the Siamese are probably still excited about it.

The Lawrence American learns that in consequence of the scarcity of female weavers, about forty males are to be at once instructed in the mysteries of the art .

It is stated that the Navy Department have designated the Rev. B. Boyanton, formerly of Cincinnati, to write the History of the navy and our naval enterprises during the rebellion. It is stated that there is not a single ton of iron in the whole Leigh Valley remaining unsold at the present day, and many of the establishments have orders ahead. West Virginia, attempted to serve a process on a Pittsburg boat at that place a few days ago, and was carried off by the boat and taken to Pittsburg. The captain is to be prosecuted. No distribution of the rewards offered for the capture of Booth and his associates and Jeff. Davis has yet been made. The subject is still under esonideration by Judge Holt, who is expected to make a report soon.

A Tennessee merchant who had been diddled out of $1800 by three sharpers, met one of the scamps in Baltimore, grabbed him, and hung on till the police came. He had pretended to be a son of Rear Admiral Porter.

A day laborer dropped dead in a harvest field near Northville, N. Y., recently. The coroner found in his pockets $1,000 in cash, two gold and two silver watches, and a certificate of deposit for $800 more.

The sentence of death pronounced gainst G. St. Leger Grenfell, a British subject convicted of aiding prisoners at Camp Douglas to escape, has been commuted to imprisonment for life, at hard labor, at the Dry Totugas.

A hail storm in the vicinity of Mount Sterling, Wisconsin, destroyed thirty thousand dollars' worth of crops. Hailstones were seen which measured six or erght inches in circum ference. At a camp meeting, the officiating cler be 2,200,000, of which Chicago claims 177,956, though before the actual figures were ascertained 200,000 and over was the estimate. The facts in the case show an increase of more than 70 per cent. in five years.

It seems that the King of Siam is an author, as well as a Louis Napoleon. The Bangkok Times says: "His Majesty has written a great amount, although it does not appear in any one particular work. The same might be said of Louis.

The Dagmar, the yacht of the Prince of Wales, is cutter built and of thirty-six tons burden. It is fitted up in a style of great luxury, with silk Brussels and plate glass. The main saloon has a marble chimney-piece, and the la-dies' cabin has a salt-water bath arranged below the floor.

The New York Times states that B. C. Truman, a correspondent of that paper, has been made the recipient of a substantial appointment from the President, and for the present will act as confidetnial agent of the government in the south.

A subscription is in circulation in Richmond for the relief of Mrs. Jefferson Davis and family, who, it is said, are in reduced circumstances. So far the effort has met with very liberal responses, and the probability is that enough will be raised to supply them with all

There are now, in and around Washington, seven regiments of the Veteran Reserve Corps, numbering in the aggregate but 1400 men, and commanded by 200 commissioned officers. A consolidation of these organizations would result in the mustering out of at least 150 officers.

A wild ox escaped from a drove in New York the other day, and ran through several of the fashionable thoroughfares, knocking peo-ple down and maiming them. He was pursued by a police sergeant on horseback, firing a loaded revolver after him, and the spectacle, although not altogether a novel for the metropolitans, caused quite a sensation. The ninth shot from the policeman's revolver killed him. ILLINOIS STATE FAIR-RAILBOAD ARRANGEMENTS.

SPRINGFIELD, August 14, 1865. For the information of those who design to be exhibitors and visitors at the Fair of this Society, to be held in Chicago, September 4th to 9th, prox., I have to state: The Illinois Central Railroad, the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad, the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, the Chicago, Burlington APOTHECARY and Quincy Railroad, the Chicago and Northwestern Railway, (all its lines), the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne Railroad, (from Fort Wayne west), and the Toledo, Wabash and Western Railroad, (from Quincy to the state line), will transport visitors to the Illinois State Fair and return, at one fare and one-fifth, or sixty per cent on full rates.

The same roads will transport all stock and other articles designed for exhibition, FREE. In all cases the full freight must be paid one way when shipment is made, but will be refunded either at the station whence shipped, on return of the same stock, or other articles, after the Fair, without change of ownership, or at Chicago, when they are shipped for return. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad will require full freight to be paid both ways but will refund it "on all property returned from the Fair with the proper identification to it attached.

All freight bills for the return of stock or other articles, must be examined by the Secretary on the grounds, who will, if satisfied of their correctness, stamp them "Exhibited," which stamp will be recognized by the railroad companies named as evidence that the articles mentioned in the bill have, in good faith, been on exhibition and are entitled to free transporta-

All excursion or return passenger railroad tickets should also be stamped by the secretary on the Grounds. The Chicago and Rock Island, the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne, and Illinois Central Railroads, whose lines run near the Fair Grounds, together with the Street Horse Railway, which delivers passengers at the entrance gate, will afford ample facilities for the safe, rapid and comfortable transportation of visitors to and from the Fair Grounds and centre of the city, at very low rates of fare. Should arrangements be effected with any other railroads terminating at Chicago, due notice will be given. The Press of this and adjoining States will confer a favor on the publie by copying and calling attention to this no. Auction and Commission Merchant tice, and they are respectfully requested to do
